LUNCH AND LEARN PROGRAM WILL EXPLORE HOW CORPORATE STRUCTURE AFFECTS SHAREHOLDER ACTIVISM

On October 31, Simpson Thacher & Bartlett LLP will present the final Lunch and Learn of the semester on how investment fund structure affects shareholder activism. RSVP here.

The Lunch and Learn Programs are designed to introduce students to the legal issues that practitioners confront in their practices. Come hear some of the most sophisticated lawyers in the world discuss the issues that challenge their clients.

GLOBAL BUSINESS & POLICY FORUM

On the evening of November 2, UCLA Law students and students from the Anderson School of Management will have the opportunity to participate in the Global Business & Policy Forum. Ben W. Heineman, Jr., Senior Fellow, Harvard Law School and Former Senior Vice President – General Counsel of General Electric, and Gonzalo Freixes, Associate Dean and Adjunct Professor of International Business Law, Taxation, Ethics and Regulations at UCLA Anderson will discuss How to do Business in Emerging Markets with Integrity: The Role of the CEO and of Top Corporate Officers.

Students are not required to have prior knowledge of the forum topic, just a willingness to listen to the presentation and participate in a discussion with peers. RSVP here.

BUSINESS LAW BREAKFAST ON BREXIT

Please join us on October 27 for an engaging panel discussion on Brexit: What's Next. The panel features Charles Ries, Vice President, International at RAND and Bernadette Greene, Deputy Consul General from the British Consulate-General in Los Angeles and will be moderated by UCLA Professor of Law Kal Raustiala, Director, UCLA Ronald W. Burkle Center for International Relations. The panel will address the various structures that Great Britain's vote to leave the European Union might take and the potential trade and security issues raised by Britain's exit. RSVP here. This event is co-sponsored with the UCLA Ronald W. Burkle Center for International Relations.
