

CONFERENCE ON THE AMERICAN LAW INSTITUTE'S
RESTATEMENT OF THE LAW, CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

APRIL 21, 2023
UCLA SCHOOL OF LAW
UCLA FACULTY CLUB
8:30 a.m.-6:00 p.m.

8:30-8:45	Check-in (Coffee and pastries)
8:45-9:00	Welcome UCLA Law Professor Andrew Verstein
9:00-10:00	Summary of Restatement on Corporate Governance Objectives and Status
10:15-11:30	Panel on Corporate Governance and Private Companies Corporate governance often focuses on public companies. Private companies also face corporate governance issues. Do private companies and closely-held companies treat corporate governance differently than public companies? If so, in what ways? Should they?
11:45 to 1:00	Keynote: A conversation with the Honorable Jed Rakoff (U.S.D.C.,S.D.N.Y) and UCLA Law Professor Stephen Bainbridge on Corporate Governance Generally
1:00-2:00	Lunch
2:15-3:30	Panel on Treatises and the Restatement There are several outstanding treatises on Delaware corporate law. What does the Restatement add to the existing literature? How should practitioners and judges use the Restatement? Are there advantages to the Restatement over the treatises?
3:45-5:00	Panel on Jurisdictions Other than Delaware Delaware is recognized as the leading jurisdiction for corporate law. However, many corporations are governed by the law of other states including California, Nevada and Texas. How should the Restatement handle the diversity of law that makes up corporate governance in the U.S?
5:00-6:00 p.m.	Reception